I became eligible for the Kids' Chance scholarship when my father was severely injured on the job, forcing him to retire early. It was a lengthy journey for him to recover, and I am beyond fortunate that he is still with us today. This scholarship means a lot to me personally because it's from people who understand my situation—having a parent who cannot help me out financially to achieve my academic goals.[...] Instead of worrying about the financial burden tied to my name, I can focus on my studies and be the best that I can be. Kids' Chance helps take away the stress stemming from the cost of my education. They help in every way possible for every kid possible—that's what makes them important to me. They'll do everything they can for you. It's an extraordinary organization, and I can NOT thank them enough for everything they do for me.
